Vehicles cannot access Gray's Inn via the Holborn entrance from November 2017 to April 2019. Pedestrian access is available but on occasions it may be withdrawn for health and safety reasons. Please take note of the directions below.

From Chancery Lane Underground Station (2 minutes):

Leave the station through the northwest exit and walk 50 metres west along High Holborn. Turn right through the archway by the Cittie of Yorke pub. Walk past the vehicle barriers into South Square. J A Kemp's reception is Number 14 South Square, immediately on your left.

If this entrance is closed, walk west (towards Holborn Underground station) for 50 metres and turn right into Fulwood Place. When you reach Gray's Inn Gardens turn right onto Field Court and walk through the archway directly ahead of you. Turn right again and 14 South Square will be directly in front of you across the square.

From Holborn Underground Station (6 minutes):

Leave the station through the High Holborn exit and turn right. Walk east for 500 metres. Immediately after you pass Chancery Lane on your right you will see the archway by the Cittie of Yorke pub across the road, on the north side of High Holborn. Go through the archway and past the vehicle barriers into South Square. J A Kemp's reception is Number 14 South Square, immediately on your left.

If this entrance is closed, walk west (towards Holborn Underground station) for 50 metres and turn right into Fulwood Place. When you reach Gray's Inn Gardens turn right onto Field Court and walk through the archway directly ahead of you. Turn right again and 14 South Square will be directly in front of you across the square.

By Taxi:

Ask the driver to take you to J A Kemp, 14 South Square, Gray's Inn, London WC1R 5JJ via the Gray's Inn Square entrance on Gray's Inn Road.
